Subject: CANCEL BOLO – RANDY BRETON

Law Enforcement Officials in Canada have located RANDY BRETON. BRETON was found to have entered that country illegally and is being held on Immigration related charges. BRETON will be presented before a judge in Canada on Tuesday, January 10, 2012 to address his immigration status and the probability for deportation.

History - On December 29, 2011 at approximately 6:46 AM, the New Britain Police Department received a report of a violent assault which had occurred at 419 Columbus Blvd.

Responding officers located three victims; two female victims, and one male victim. The injuries sustained appear to have been caused by blunt force, possibly by use of a hammer. The male victim was transported to an area trauma hospital and did suffer significant head injuries. The female victims sustained less severe injuries. All victims are recovering.

The suspect had been identified as RANDY BRETON (DOB 6/19/1970).

The investigation indicated the victims were known to Breton. The investigation further classified this incident to be related to Domestic Violence. The New Britain Police Department has obtained an arrest warrant for BRETON for charges relating to these assaults.
